I hereby apply for membership of Juvenile Justice International and agree to be bound by its 'code of conduct'. As a requirement I understand that as an individual applying for membership I must confirm that I do not have any unspent criminal convictions (other than for traffic offences), I confirm I have never had a criminal conviction registered against me for offences in relation to a crime against a child or young person, I am not and never have been a registered sex offender in any jurisdiction, I am not now, or never have been prohibited from working with children or young people by any court order, voluntary undertaking or by any authority. I undertake to inform the Director General at Juvenile Justice International without delay in writing sent by registered / certified post to the head office in the United Kingdom, if ever I become subject to such a conviction, or disqualification. I undertake to conduct myself, both publicly and privately, in a professional manner and to uphold the reputation and standing of Juvenile Justice International and not to cause any embarrassment or distress to the organisation or its work. I agree not to represent publicly the views of Juvenile Justice International without the written consent of the Guidance Committee. I also agree to provide Juvenile Justice International with copies and verification of my qualifications and work history 'if requested' to do so by the administrator.

DECLARATION:

(organizational applicants only)

Name of Organisation:
Full Address:
Job Title:		From:

If I am applying for membership on behalf of an organization, I can confirm that we do not permit any person with criminal convictions against a child or young person, or any person who is, or has been a registered sex offender in any jurisdiction to work with children or young people within the organization or in the delivery of services. I also realize that our membership will be revoked and will become null and void immediately should it come to the attention of Juvenile Justice International that this should not be the case for any reason whatsoever. We confirm that we will promote the 'Code of Conduct' as an example of best practice for professionals within our organization to follow. We agree not to represent publicly the views of Juvenile Justice International without the written consent of the Guidance Committee.
